Medicaid MCOs: Market Landscape Trends, Contracting Environment and Manufacturer Engagement

The managed Medicaid segment continues to be impacted by policy changes and fluctuations in enrollment post-COVID. HIRC's report, Medicaid MCOs: Market Landscape Trends, Contracting Environment and Manufacturer Engagement, reviews the Medicaid MCO market landscape, the contracting environment, and pharmaceutical manufacturer engagement. The report addresses the following questions:

- What is the nature of the current Medicaid MCO market? Which plans account for the majority of market share?
- What top market trends are impacting the Medicaid MCO segment? Which strategic imperatives are Medicaid MCO leaders working to address over the next 12-18 months?
- What activities are Medicaid MCOs engaging in to better manage drug costs and utilization?
- What is the current contracting environment across 20+ therapeutic areas? Which contract types are most frequently offered and what are the most common rebate/discount amounts?
- Which manufacturers are most often nominated as Medicaid MCOs' overall "Partner of Choice"? How do manufacturers benchmark across willingness to offer supplemental discounts/rebates, and overall quality of programs/resources?

Key Finding: Top market trends reported by Medicaid MCOs for 2023/2024 include Inflation Reduction Act (IRA)/Federal & State Regulations, Gene/Orphan Drug Funding, and Medicaid Redetermination & Expansion.
